

Future value chain

Future value chain

The industrial investment program will generate significant local value added by developing downstream processing assets (phosphoric acid and fertilizer production) and related infrastructure (new port complex).

This downstream investment will contribute to extending the life of the phosphate reserves of the region.

Source URL: <http://phosboucraa.ma/industry/industrial-strategy/future-value-chain>